

ILLUSTRATED

Evening Ledger

MONDAY
August 14, 1916

A DAY'S ACTIVITIES IN PHILADELPHIA GRAPHICALLY PORTRAYED BY THE CAMERA MAN

GUARDSMAN BURIED WITH MILITARY HONORS
The funeral of David Barry, who died at El Paso a week ago, was held today at St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Fourth street and Willing's alley. Veterans were among the pallbearers.

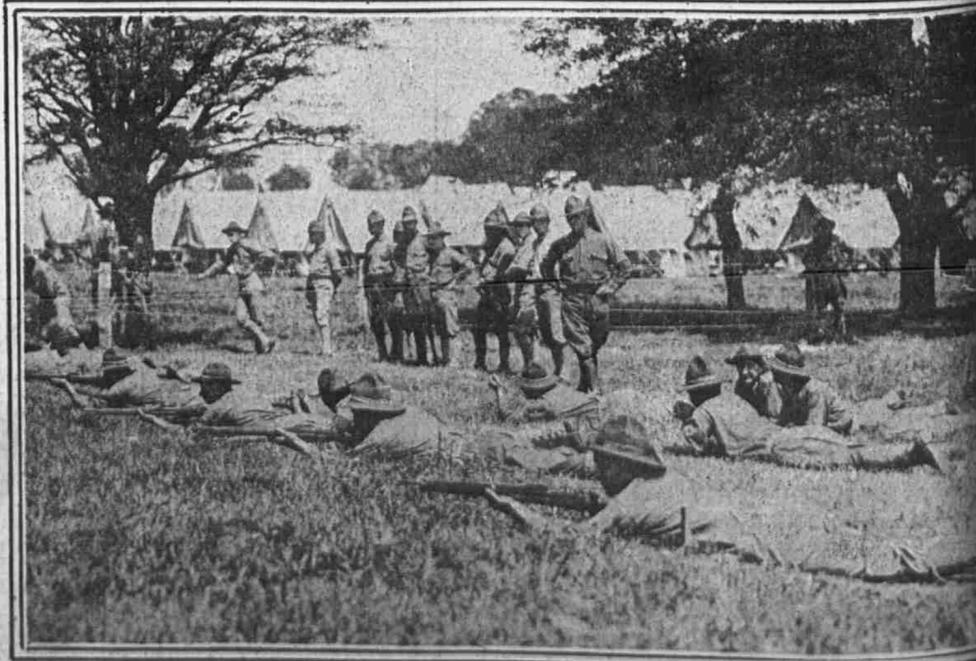

GROUP OF "LITTLE CINDERELLAS" IN TAGGART PLAYGROUND PAGEANT

PLAYGROUND HEALTH BUREAU AIMS TO PROTECT THESE CHILDREN
Mr. Harry Shapiro and Mr. William Freeman have started a health bureau at the Furness School, Third and Mifflin streets, in which duly appointed juvenile health officers, seen with their badges and their sticks in the foreground, keep the playground clear of all material likely to attract flies.

RUSH AT WILDWOOD TO GET CERTIFICATES FOR CHILDREN
The picture was taken yesterday by an EVENING LEDGER photographer. It shows the Wildwood City Hall and the throng which stood in line for hours to get the necessary papers so they could return to Philadelphia with their offspring.

DREXEL BIDDLE BIBLE CLASS SUMMER HOME AT LANSDOWNE, TURNED INTO A TRAINING CAMP FOR THE DEVELOPMENT OF RECRUITS WHO MAY WANT TO JOIN THE UNITED STATES MARINE CORPS
At the left can be seen a squad of men at the Biddle Marine Corps Training Camp digging trenches in the broiling summer sun. At the right are shown other "rookies" at target practice.